ESSAY WRITING AND POSTER PRESENTATION ON THE OCCASION OF WORLD AIDS DAY

In the Essay Writing competition, students expressed their thoughts on themes such as prevention of HIV/AIDS, stigma reduction, importance of awareness programs, and the role of youth in combating the disease. The competition not only provided a platform for students to articulate their ideas but also emphasized the significance of spreading accurate knowledge about HIV/AIDS.

The Poster Presentation competition showcased the creativity of students in communicating messages visually. Participants designed posters highlighting awareness messages, preventive measures, and social responsibility regarding HIV/AIDS. The colorful and informative posters reflected the students' commitment to promoting health education through art and design.

The program concluded with appreciation for all participants, and certificates were awarded to winners in both competitions. The activities not only enhanced students' understanding of HIV/AIDS but also encouraged them to become advocates for awareness and prevention in their communities.
